

Utilizing strategic partnerships and alliances, ER Group, LLC provides administrative management services while leveraging competitive advantages of one or more market economies.

About ER Group, LLC

ER Group, LLC is a provider of administrative management services to public and private sector operators in the areas of automation of business processes and records management.

We work collaboratively with our strategic partners to develop customized information technology solutions that allow our customers to operate their business processes more efficiently and with substantial cost savings.